HIV doesn't care who you are.

We Do. Dedicated to the development of innovative diagnostics, nutritionals and pharmaceuticals, Abbott proudly supports Gay Days in Orlando.

This year is the 18th anniversary of Gay Days, the age in the United States, when we become entitled to vote. We urge you to take that privilege and responsibility seriously and also why our theme this year is 'Patriotic Pride - VOTE'. This November Americans will be electing our next president. It will be a groundbreaking election whoever wins. We will have either our first female president, our first African-American president, or our oldest president elected ever (as of April, 2008)!

No matter to which party you belong, please support the Log Cabin Republicans-Orlando who are spearheading a Habitat For Humanity building project during Gay Days. It isn't too late to assist them in building a house. This helps show the community and the world that even though we're here to have a great time, we're also concerned about making the world a better place for all.

Once you return home from your vacation go to GayDayS.com/vote and help us choose the BEST of Gay Days 2008. As always the Magic Kingdom on Saturday, June 7th will be the MUST DO EVENT of your vacation.

We'll have many categories to choose from such as BEST DJ (male & female), comedian, vendor, theme park, film, song from the Gay Days 2008 CD. We also want you to submit your favorite photo from Gay Days 2008. We'll be doing a Best Photo contest and you could win a prize.

Thank you to G.I.R.L. (GayInternetRadioLive.com) for running a fantastic Gay Days DJ contest this spring to bring in the DJs that you VOTED for online.

We will introduce some new events this year and bring back some favorites. The new events include a Soul Lounge, Euforia-a BEAR dance, Mr. Gay Days Leather contest, a PFLAG conference, and not just one comedian-but three this year.

Some of our returning events include the Gay Days Expo, daily Pool Parties, Esurance.com CLIP @ Gay Days Film Festival, Miss Gay Days Pageant, and the Gay Days Round-Up. See the full calendar for location, times, and cost for these events.

This year in the GLBT Travel Destinations section on page 17, we highlight other GLBT vacation destinations around the country. We know you will love these; many have been VOTED some of the top GLBT vacation places. They are all just a quick flight on Delta, the Official Airline of Gay Days. We're sure you'll enjoy these other vacation trips during the year.

Gay Days continues to grow with 140,000 plus attendees traveling here from around the world. We're proud to have been VOTED one of the top 3 GLBT vacation events in the world. Before your vacation ends be sure you stop by the Gay Days Expo, enjoy one of the many pool events, or one of the 50 other events happening around town. Check out the full calendar in the middle of the magazine on pages 29 and 30.

GayDayS.com/Gay Days, Inc. is proud to be part of the Gay Days growth. That has been helped by the support of our sponsors. We thank Bud Light for their continued support as well as all our sponsors throughout the country.

To our Gay Days 2008 visitors, we're glad you're here! Please vacation responsibly and start making plans for Gay Days 2009 - Sun & Buns! June 2-8, 2009. You can book your 2009 hotel room while you're here.

PHILADELPHIA AND THE COUNTRYSIDE

Philadelphia is famous around the globe as the birthplace of independence and American democracy, but the city's long gay rights history is often overlooked. Some of the nation's first gay rights protests - before the landmark Stonewall Riots in New York City - took place in front of Philadelphia's Independence Hall during the "Annual Reminders" held each July 4th from 1965 to 1969.

Today, Philadelphia's gay community is active and influential in business, political and social circles. The community is represented both in state and city government. Special events for the gay community are plentiful throughout the year, and a long list of gay and lesbian athletic, social, cultural, religious and service organizations have active memberships.

City of Brotherly Love & Sisterly Affection

What makes Philadelphia so memorable is its unique blend of experiences. By day, explore four centuries of history and architecture, quaint neighbourhoods, remarkable museum collections and endless shopping. When the sun sets, the city heats up with acclaimed performing arts, candlelight tours, delectable dining and thriving nightlife. Philadelphia is easy to get around and known for its friendly people and hometown charm.

YOU BELONG TO ME

SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 2008 1:00PM

With references to Edgar Allen Poe, YOU BELONG TO ME draws from a rich pedigree of suspense and horror. Dumped by his lover, Jeffrey arranges a fresh start in a new apartment. But strange things start happening. A deranged man attacks him, weird noises rise from the floor and former tenants vanish. Revenge is a dish best served cold, and the chilling terror in this thriller will keep you glued to the edge of your seat.

GAY BED & BREAKFAST OF TERROR

SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 2008 3:00PM

An unusual amalgam, Gay B&B features a stunning selection of buff male flesh, plenty of belly laughs and loads of bloody, mutilated guests! There are unspeakable horrors to be found at the Sahara Salvation Bed & Breakfast, and not all of them involve the suspicious mincemeat muffins offered to guests when they check in! Totally tongue-in-cheek, this hysterically funny and sexy offering is a must for queer horror fans. On the eve of a monster circuit party, five wary couples arrive at this dusty and rundown bed & breakfast that has (hopefully) seen better days. Let the mayhem begin! You may never stay in a gay B&B again...

BACK SOON

SUNDAY, JUNE 8, 2008 1:00PM

From Rob Williams, the creator of the award-winning film Long-Term Relationship comes a story of love, loss, identity and hope. Aspiring actor Logan Foster (Windham Beacham) finds himself inexplicably drawn to reformed drug dealer Gil Ramirez (Matthew Montgomery), despite their different backgrounds... and the fact that they are both straight. But neither man is prepared for the true nature of their connection or the impact it will have on their lives.

HOUSEBOY

SUNDAY, JUNE 8, 2008 3:00PM

Ricky is left alone to house-sit after the couple he shares a bed with go away for the holidays. When he learns that his relationship with them is about to end, he tries to find human connection through internet hookups and anonymous sex. These transitory romps seem to do nothing to combat his loneliness and isolation, so he begins to consider more drastic measures. Ricky is a lost boy looking for love in all the wrong places, but will he learn that what he needs more than sex is friendship before his planned Christmas Eve farewell? Like an anti-war film about war, this is an anti-anonymous sex film about anonymous sex. This is a human story about treating others humanely and the power of friendship and savoring relationships as opposed to instant gratification.

The Center, (Gay, Lesbian & Bisexual Community Center of Central Florida, Inc.) is one of the premier organizations in Central Florida and the oldest GLBT center in the state. The Center's history is older than Gay Days. The Center opened in 1986 and continues to offer support and social programs for all ages, genders, orientations and socio-economic backgrounds. The Center was instrumental in the start of Gay Days eighteen years ago and continues to be involved today.

The Center provides a coming out group for men, support for GLBT families, HIV/AIDS testing and prevention, a health fair, and a counseling program. In addition, over 20 autonomous GLBT groups meet at The Center during the month.

The Center also hosts art receptions, bingo, dances, plays, and many other social events during the year. Stop in while you're here for Gay Days or any time of the year!

IT'S A DECISION EVERYBODY CAN LIVE WITH.

Right now, HIV and AIDS cases are increasing among men who have sex with men.

If you're a man having unprotected sex with another man, you're at risk. So remember:
