Judging

There will be an odd number of judges on the panel, who are active members of the leather and LGBTQ community. The Mr. GayDayS® Leather contest utilizes the Olympic Scoring System. In this system, the highest and lowest scores in each event are dropped and the remaining scores are added to make a Contestant's total score for that category. The scores for each category are added together to make your total score. In the event of a tie, scores that were dropped will be added back to determine the winner.

Following the end of the contest, a Contestant's scores will be provided to him upon request. On the scoring sheets provided, Judges will be identified by numbers (which will not be revealed to you and will be randomized between categories), not their names.

Score allocation will be as follows:

A. Personal Interview, 30%

Each contestant will be interviewed by our panel of judges prior to the contest. Questions may range from your personal history, occupation, life experience and social affiliations, to personal and political opinions about current events topics, etc. Judges' questions often cover knowledge of the leather community; its leaders and history; and the Contestant's contributions and/or leadership in the leather community.

1. Judges will be looking at the character, charisma, and personality of each contestant. It will also provide them the opportunity to evaluate basic skills and qualities such as intellect, communication capabilities, attitude, and composure.
2. Contestants should feel free to attend the interview in comfortable bar wear. Contestants should remember that this is a professional, yet casual, interview. Attire should reflect personality while remaining relaxed, and professional.
3. The interview schedule and room location will be provided at the Mandatory Contest Participant Meeting.
4. Personal Interviews will be scheduled for a maximum of 10 minutes.
5. Interviews may be audio/video recorded or livestreamed for public viewing.

B. Bar Wear, 15%

Bar wear is a chance for you to show the judges and the crowd who you are with your leather gear. This should be what you would normally wear to the bar and should represent your leather esthetic or persona.

1. Contestants will be brought on stage one by one and introduced with their contestant number and stage name. As you walk the stage, the emcee will share basic bio info with the crowd including age, current city, occupation, etc.
2. Judges will look for how well your gear fits you, your attitude and crowd appeal in leather.
3. Set-up time is not provided; no set or props may be used.
4. No items may be left on the stage upon exiting.

C. Pecs & Personality, 15%

This is time to show off a little skin while still maintaining the image of a leather man. This is not a "body contest" but rather how comfortable and confident you appear in your own skin. Wear your favorite jock and have fun!

1. Contestants will be brought on stage one by one and introduced with a more fun and personal bio to include sexual interests, position, hanky codes, etc.
2. Contestants will be asked to answer a pop question, this can be a question about leather, pop culture, gay culture, etc. Contestants will be allowed up to 90 seconds to answer the question.
3. Judging will be looking for how confident you are on stage in your jock. They will also judge your response to the question. They will not be about how correct the answer is, but how you choose to answer. Judges would prefer a correct answer; however, this is your chance to win over the crowd with your personality.
4. Set-up time is not provided; no set props may be used.
5. No items may be left on the stage upon exiting.

D. Formal Leather/Platform Speech, 20%

Impress the judges with your formal leather attire and present a platform speech on how you will use the Mr. GayDays® Leather title to serve the community.

1. Contestants will be brought on stage one by one and introduced with their contributions to the leather and LGBT communities.
2. Contestants will have up to 90 seconds to articulate why they would like to be Mr. GayDays® Leather title.
3. Judges will be looking for the overall appearance of each contestant in full leather including how well it fits, the contestant's attitude and overall appeal in leather. They will also judge the speech in its sincerity and personalization.
4. Set-up time is not provided; no set props may be used.
5. No items may be left on the stage upon exiting.

E. Administrative Score, 20%

This portion of the score is based upon your ability to attend all required events and interact professionally with guests and Gay Days personnel.

1. All contestants will begin the contest with ten (10) Administrative points. Points may be gained for a maximum of twenty (20) points by attending and interacting at Official GayDays® Orlando events throughout the weekend or removed to a minimum of zero (0) points at the discretion of GayDays® Owners or Producers.
