WELCOME To Gay Days

CITY OF ORLANDO

OFFICE OF

MAYOR

April 1, 2004

Dear GayDayS Visitors and Guests:

On behalf of the City of Orlando and its residents, welcome to our community.

We hope that during your visit you will have a chance to enjoy the amenities and observe the exciting opportunities which abound within our community, ranging from our world famous attractions and resorts to our cherished neighborhoods and dynamic economy.

New growth coupled with a traditional sense of community continues to place Orlando at the forefront of the minds of families, individuals and corporations in their selection of communities in which to live, work and play. From downtown to the outer edges of greater Orlando, we take pride in our cherished quality of life and the multitude of offerings that are presented to our citizens and businesses.

I hope your visit to Orlando will be a safe, enjoyable and pleasant one.

Sincerely,

CITY OF ORLANDO

June 1, 2004

Gay Days, Inc.
1011 Virginia Drive, Suite 101
Orlando, FL 32803

OFFICE OF
PATTY SHEEHAN
CITY COMMISSIONER

Dear GayDayS Visitors and Guests:

Welcome, once again, to the City Beautiful! I am very proud and honored to have the opportunity to extend a warm greeting to all the men and women who have traveled from across our United States and from around the globe to our wonderful city.

As you experience Orlando, you will find that we are a very diverse and growing city. The contribution, both financially and culturally, you and the other 135,000 gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender visitors made to the City of Orlando and Orange County last year continues to play a role in the constant evolution of our great city into the world-class, major city Orlando is today. Furthermore, thanks to you, over $100,000,000.00 were generated in and around the greater Orlando area. This is an awesome illustration of how vital and important the GLBT community is to the everyday operations of businesses and individuals not only in Orlando, but in your cities and towns as well.

So, on behalf of the City Council, the City of Orlando and all her residents, I again, officially welcome you to Orlando. To those returning, it is great to have you here again and, to those visiting for the first time, welcome and I hope you discover the charm and beauty we all have grown to cherish about Orlando.

Have fun and be safe as you enjoy Orlando and GayDays 2004!

With kind regards, I am

Patty Sheehan
City Commissioner
Orlando City Council, District 4

Dear Gay Days Visitors and Guests,

Welcome to Orange County, one of the most exciting places on earth!

On behalf of our citizens and the Orange County Board of County Commissioners, I encourage you to enjoy our abundant natural beauty and the rich cultural diversity of our people.

We are proud of our many attractions and accommodations that will make your stay enjoyable and memorable. I think you will agree our hospitality industry is out of this world!

Orange County is also aggressive to attract high tech, high value jobs. We are home of the University of Central Florida, one of the nation's top research institutions for computer science, lasers and optics. Yes, we know how to be high tech and high fun!

We hope your schedule will allow you time to sample the variety and vitality of our region. We know there is enough magic in this kingdom to bring you back again and again.

Sincerely,

Richard T. Crotty

Credits go to Brook Pifer, local photographer, for her amazing work on the cover. Her photography appears throughout the magazine. Thanks to Marcus Dublin of Mychael Peters 360 in downtown Orlando for styling the hair of all our models. Thanks also to Morgan Wade of MAC-Nordstrom at The Florida Mall, who did make-up for the shoot. Finally, thanks to Urban Body for outfitting our models in the latest fashions. (see their ad on pg. 19)

Continuing from left to right are Linda Nuñez & Melissa Foxx, who have been together for a little over a year. Linda is a local singer-songwriter who performs throughout the state, and Melissa is a local radio personality on Real Radio 104.1.

Gay Days History 101

Whether it's your first time or one of many times, welcome to Gay Days 2004. Has it already been 14 years? It seems like just yesterday the Center (G.L.B.C.C.- Gay, Lesbian, & Bisexual Community Center of Central Florida, Inc.) was coordinating that first enchanting visit to the Magic Kingdom. Remember that you can still count on The Center (the oldest in Florida- see their ad on pg. 14) to help make things happen for you if you're just vacationing or a resident. Check out GayOrlando.com or with the fab staff at the Vacationhomefl.com booth at the GayDayS Expo on how to become a resident of Central Florida. (see their ad on pg. 28)

Since that eventful Saturday in 1991, Gay Days has grown into the largest internationally-recognized-and-supported gay & lesbian vacation event in the country—and probably the biggest around the world. This year, over $100 million will be pumped into Orlando's economy because of Gay Days!

Starting with the first GayDayS Cruise ever on May 30th, through Monday, June 7th, over 140,000 GLBT and supportive vacationers from around the world are expected to fly, drive, walk, pedal, and whatever else it takes for them to arrive in Central Florida for Gay Days 2004. Most will be wearing the official Gay Days red-shirt (available at the GayDayS Central- see pg. 5), while enjoying the many delights that Central Florida has to offer.

GayDayS.com/ Gay Days, Inc. is a proud sponsor with The Center, which continues to be an important part of the Gay Days growth. GayDayS.com is also a proud member of IGLTA (International Gay & Lesbian Travel Association), the Orlando-Orange County Convention & Visitors Bureau, and many other travel/vacation groups. Check us out throughout the year for any vacation plans you may have anywhere around the world.

Orlando, "The City Beautiful" (yes, there is more to Central Florida than just the attractions!) and our region has changed since that first Gay Day in 1991: We have the 3rd largest Metropolitan Community Church (Joy MCC) here in Orlando (consider worshipping with them while you're here). We just re-elected Patty Sheehan, our first openly-gay City of Orlando council-person for her second term. And this year the Orange County Commission has been reviewing a law that will protect all citizens, including gays and lesbians, from discrimination in employment, housing, and other public accommodations. It should be on the November ballot. With so many important issues on the horizon, don't forget to vote—no matter where in the country you live!

The GLBT community was instrumental in electing present Orlando Mayor Buddy Dyer in a special election in 2003 and also in re-electing him this past March. He was the first mayor to attend and publicly kick-off Gay Days at the 2003 GayDayS Kick-Off Party last June. Hopefully we will see Buddy & Patty at the 2004 GayDayS Welcome Party on Friday, June 4th. However, unfortunately, they will probably have to miss the Kick-Off Party since their swearing-in ceremony is scheduled for June 1st.

To all the visitors of Gay Days 2004, we're glad you're here! Please vacation responsibly and start making plans for Gay Days 2005. Enjoy!

This year we started a brand new Gay Days tradition with the Annual Gay Days Cruise. This fun-filled cruise will travel to a different tropical paradise each year. In 2004 we are sailing to tropical Freeport & Nassau in the Bahamas from Pt. Canaveral on May 30, 2004, for 4 fun-filled nights aboard Carnival's Funship, "Fantasy." We will be getting to know each other better at our "Gay Days Exclusive" Welcome Aboard Cocktail Party, the first night we push off from the dock, and along the way, we'll be dancing under the stars. We will be returning on Thursday, June 3rd just in time to head to the Disney area for all the great land events planned during Gay Days 2004. (see pg. 20-21)

Our cruise events are not currently "full ship" charters, but as we grow each year, we anticipate being able to charter an entire ship! Remember when the land event was just a handful of people? We will be holding EXCLUSIVE Gay Days special parties during the cruises for our group, such as the Welcome Aboard Cocktail Party, Tea Dance, Beach Party, and much more!

Some of you may be finding out about this after the fact if you are reading this magazine during your stay at Gay Days in Orlando. No problem. Check out the ad on page 11 that highlights our 2005 Gay Days cruise. In 2005, we set sail on our 2nd Annual Cruise to one of the "Premier Gay Capitals of the World" - Key West & Cozumel, sailing from Miami on May 30, 2005 aboard Carnival's Funship, "Fascination." Space will sell out fast, so REGISTER NOW! Detailed information is available on the Web site @ www.GayDayS.com. Or stop by our table at the Expo to get more information and to register.

Magic Kingdom · Walt Disney World Resort

9 AM · Park Opens*

11 AM · Gay & Lesbian Youth Meet at Cinderella's Castle
Here's a simple way for kids & young adults to meet each other and find new friends. It's a casual thing. Talk to the people around you... That's why they're there too!

12:45 PM · Lesbian Meet & Greet at Town Square
It's a girl thing! Meet at Town Square and mingle with all the women getting ready for the Lesbian Express train ride.

1 PM · Annual Bears Gathering at Country Bear Jamboree
If you're a bear, an honorary bear, or just call bears your friends, you probably don't want to miss this gathering!

1 PM · Lesbian Express
All aboard the Lesbian Train! Share a grand circle tour of the Magic Kingdom, aboard the Walt Disney World Railroad. Disembark at Main Street Station for the Women's Stroll.

1:40 PM · Women's Stroll
Time for the girls to take to the street, proudly walking arm-in-arm down Main Street USA to join the Pre-Parade Meet & Greet at Cinderella Castle.

RED!!!

We're here, and we're queer, but let's all remember that we are sharing the park with other guests that may not have had a clue that they would be in the minority today. Hopefully, by the end of their vacation, they'll be going back to all corners of the country and signing up for PFLAG, COLAGE (Children of Lesbians And Gays Everywhere), and telling everyone what a HORRIBLE idea it is to add discrimination into the U.S. Constitution. So while we are in the Kingdom, let's agree to put on a happy (gay) face and be on our best behavior. What does that mean? Hold hands, kiss, laugh, and act like the wonderful child we still have hidden in us.

If you happen to run into guests who haven't been sprinkled with pixie dust, close your eyes, click your heels 3 times, and repeat "I wish they were at SeaWorld" until your friends tell you they are out of sight—or a miracle happens!

Above all else, have a FAB time!

This is the BIG DAY! Gay Day at Disney started here, and the Magic Kingdom remains by far the biggest draw of gay & lesbian crowds. Arrive early to be sure you don't miss it!

1:45 PM · Pre-Parade Meet & Greet

Cinderella Castle Forecourt. Join thousands of red-clad families from around the world for this traditional, impromptu street party.

3 PM · Disney's "Share A Dream Come True" Parade*

The 3 PM gathering to watch the parade is the tradition. Wherever the parade travels, it's surrounded by a sea of red-shirted Gay Day crowds!

2 PM - 8 PM · Gay Days Expo

Need a break from the heat? Enjoy browsing for FREE through the wares and exhibits of an eclectic collection of vendors. While there, enter to win a FREE trip to Gay Days 2005! Hotel Royal Plaza.

PLEASE NOTE: If you intend to return to the Magic Kingdom later today, be sure to get a hand stamp prior to exiting the park. Both a hand stamp and a ticket are required for re-entry.

9 PM · Spectro Magic Parade

10 PM · Wishes Nighttime Spectacular

11 PM · Park closes*

ORLANDO CITY COMMISSIONER Patty Sheehan

Welcome to Orlando! Many people come to our city to visit and end up missing the best part of the Orlando experience. Orlando's downtown is a place of vibrant nightlife and unique shopping, a city much more diverse & interesting than most visitors know.

©BROOK PIFER

Over the past few years, our downtown has experienced an urban renaissance with new high-rise developments, as well as the restoration of many of Orlando's historic bungalows. Gays and lesbians were an important part of the gentrification of downtown Orlando. Many of the historic homes were refurbished and renovated by people like us! During the last census, Colonialtown was identified as the Orlando neighborhood with the most same-sex couples. Today, it boasts the fastest appreciating real estate values in the city.

One of my favorite places in downtown is Lake Eola Park. In the center of the lake is our signature Centennial Fountain. The fountain resembles a flying saucer and is a tribute to post-modern architecture. At night, the fountain illuminates in multi-colors, providing a dramatic focal point against Orlando's city skyline. An exciting and romantic activity at Lake Eola Park is GondEola, where authentic gondolas complete with gondoliers sing Italian opera favorites as they escort you around the lake. You can keep it simple with champagne and chocolates or go all out with a lobster and filet dinner. Bravissimo!

Thornton Park is located along the southeast corner of Lake Eola. The pedestrian-friendly promenades along Central, Summerlin, and Washington Streets feature a wonderful mix of specialty shops, great restaurants, and chic condos. Urban Think! is a must-visit store with everything from the hottest best-selling books to local artwork. Hue, an Orlando favorite, is the place to see and be seen; it has been celebrated as one of the city's best restaurants in local and national publications. Urban Body has fashions for the best-dressed gay man (see their ad on pg. 19). Gelato and coffee shops offer a quick snack. Traveling north on Summerlin will take one to the intersection of Washington Street. Anthony's Pizza serves up slices consistently voted among the best in the city. Wildsides Barbeque has a full bar and the best Portobello mushroom sandwich I've ever tasted.

When you're in the mood to party, some of the best nightclubs for lesbian patrons lie within one-mile of the Lake Eola area. Orange Avenue, the main street of downtown Orlando, is located just 2 blocks west of Lake Eola. Wall Street, just off Orange Avenue, features popular hot spots like Slingapours, home of Miss Sammie and Julian's Disco Brunch from noon to mid-afternoon on Sundays. The Bloody Marys are the bomb!

From downtown, you can travel in any direction and reach one of Orlando's great nightclubs. Head one mile south on Orange Avenue to Pulse, the newest addition to our city's nightlife. One-mile north of Lake Eola on Mills Avenue is the Cactus Club. One-mile east is Southern Nights. And one-mile west of downtown is the Full Moon Saloon.

Always remember to enjoy Orlando safely, always designate a driver, and have a great time in our wonderful city!

The Wedding of Genia & Sara

PLEASE JOIN US-
Thursday, June 3rd at 7pm at the GayDays Expo!

"As far as our engagement goes, I wanted something more secure for our relationship, and I decided to ask Sara to be my wife."

To anyone who knows them, it's obvious that Eugenia "Genia" Blake and Sharakae "Sara" Montgomery are crazy in love and are building a beautiful life together. Genia, who manages a group home and provides private personal care (is that what attracted Sara?), was born right here in the "Sunshine State" in Gainesville, Florida. Sara works as a deli clerk and is a native of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

They first met in 1999, when Sara attended a birthday party for Genia. They were both in relationships at that time so nothing happened. Fast-forward three years later. They ran into each other at a club in Gainesville called Wild Angels (drinking Bud Light, I hope). They hugged, chatted for a while, and then went their separate ways.

Another year speeds on by. Then, one night at the University Club (Gainesville is the home of the Gators), while out with friends, one of Genia's friends, knowing that Genia had a crush on Sara, decided to help the relationship along (isn't that what friends are for?). Genia's friend spilled the beans and told Sara that Genia was head-over-heels for her. The friend sent a drink over to Sara saying that it was from Genia. When Sara came over to say thank-you, Genia (who claims that she is shy) could barely look at her. Fortunately, they had another chance encounter later that evening in of all places, the bathroom (that is one good reason that the women's room is always busier)! Genia had gotten over her shyness, and they finally exchanged phone numbers.

From then on, the couple would spend hours at a time on the phone, go out to the movies, grab dinner together, and attend parties as "friends." Genia admits that all their friends thought they were together, but that "we were in denial," she says. It wasn't until Valentine's Day 2003 that it happened: When Genia asked Sara to be her "partner, lover, friend, and soulmate."

Their love of travel, family time, outdoor sports, and nights out with friends and family made Gay Days the perfect choice for their vacation together last June. They witnessed the 2003 Gay Days wedding of Michael & Jason, which gave Genia some ideas. Genia says, "As far as our engagement goes, I wanted something more secure for our relationship, and I decided to ask Sara to be my wife." The planning included a weekend away from home at the Seabreeze Manor in Gulfport, Florida near St. Petersburg on the Gulf of Mexico. Genia popped the question at 8:47 PM on the beautiful evening of Friday, March 19, 2004.

Since then they have lived together and are currently building a home for a large family. They have six children together (speaking of family values). Their oldest son is 19 and is a student at FAMU in Tallahassee. They also have a son and daughter who are both 16; another son, 14; a son, 12; and another daughter, 9. Both of their immediate families are very supportive.

We hope this happy family makes Gay Days an annual tradition. Genia & Sara invite you to share their special day and join them as they make this commitment to one another on Thursday, June 3rd at 7 PM during the Expo at the Hotel Royal Plaza. They would like to thank Diane Berube, of GayDayS.com and all the wedding sponsors for making their dream come true.

Incidentally, they are registered at Bloomingdale's (see them at the Expo) and Target. We look forward to sharing pictures of their new home on our Web site once they finish decorating!

From all of us...

Congratulations, Genia & Sara!

Special thanks to our wedding coordinator and other sponsors!
