Dear GayDays Visitors,

On behalf of the staff, volunteers and the GLBT community, welcome to Orlando and all our communities' Pride Month Events.

We are so happy once again to be the beneficiary of GayDayS.com. The Center has enjoyed the support of GayDayS.com not only at Savoir Fair but also throughout the year. The Savoir Fair Expo, at the Hotel Royal Plaza has become a very exciting and fun event that you don't want to miss. Stop by to visit all the vendors and be sure to stop at The Center's booth to say hello to all the volunteers that assist with the event.

On your way out, please be sure to drop a little something in the fish bowls at the exit because 100% of your donation goes directly to the Gay, Lesbian & Bisexual Community Center.

Also, don't forget to check out the LesBiGay Bar and Club Guide on page 32 and please be sure to visit one or more of Orlando's many world-class Gay and Lesbian nightclubs or neighborhood bars.

Yours In Pride,
Peter N. Pavich

Parliament House Ripens With Age: Come Enjoy The New Fruits of a Vintage Orlando Landmark

Like a wine that improves over time, the world-famous Parliament House Resort and Entertainment Complex gets better with age.

World-Class Resort Unfolds

The biggest news coming out of the P-House this year, is that they will soon be breaking ground on their much-anticipated time-share condominiums. This multi-million dollar construction project, presently referred to as "The Gardens," will utilize the 16 acres of land currently adjacent to the P-House, which was once the Carolina Moon trailer park. The gardens will emerge as a spectacular, five-star project that will absolutely stop traffic. The resort will feature 170 units, a swimming pool, health club, specialty shops, secured parking and immaculately manicured gardens. Check out their web site at www.parliamenthouse.com, where you can keep up with the progress.

Photographs of the construction as it progresses through its metamorphosis, from groundbreaking to grand opening, will be posted on the web site.

On Tap Now

You'll want to pay close attention to the P-House's "Disney-esque" attention to details, appearance and service. Newly-renovated rooms, a revamped entertainment complex and a romantic, private beach on pristine Rock Lake are just a few of the latest improvements.

Completed Renovations Make All Feel Welcome

The $2 million makeover of the existing facilities has dramatically improved the appearance and overall image of the hotel and has stimulated business. The club seems to become more popular with each passing day, and the resort's rooms are sold out on most nights. A variety of local groups and organizations such as tennis, bowling and softball leagues are utilizing the renovated Footlight Theatre and Courtyard for banquets and other events. In addition to the normal bevy of hot guys, now lesbians, bisexuals and transsexuals have also discovered a comfortable and welcoming environment.

Special events such as free concerts, plays and benefits for various charities have also helped the P-House to expand its image to include community leadership. As a result of these changes, the P-House continues to assert itself as the premier gay resort worldwide.

National Spotlight Brings Out Stars

Big business also seems to be taking notice of the P-House's recent upgrades. Commercial heavy weights such as Smirnoff, for example, have already struck up a relationship with the new-look, new-attitude resort. Their sponsorship of the "Courtyard Concert Series" regularly brings top national, and international recording acts to the poolside Courtyard Stage on a monthly basis, giving the patrons yet another great reason to party at the P-House.

With a nod to nostalgia, the multi-million-dollar makeover retains this classic landmark sign.

Sponsorship Supports All GayDays Activities

Since the inception of GayDays, the P-House has played a pivotal role in helping to grow the event with their combination of special events and promotions that coincide with the week-long party.

Gay Day at Islands of Adventure: June 3rd

Please, 'Wear Red and Be Seen' – Keep Tradition Alive

As last year's 10th Anniversary of the first Magic Kingdom gathering makes way for this year's 11th, yet first gathering in a new decade of GayDays, an all-new GayDay at Islands of Adventure is added to the calendar of events.

Previously listed as one of many "suggested-visit days," it is now the hope of local organizers that GayDays visitors from around the world will join together at Islands of Adventure on Sunday, June 3rd. We want to create another theme park attendance phenomenon and a second opportunity to share a day together with huge numbers of LesBiGay fun-seekers.

Universal's Islands of Adventure Park has an appeal so vastly different than that of Disney's Magic Kingdom that it easily won out as the most logical choice for a second Gay Day.

The Park's twisted mass of green steel, The Incredible Hulk Coaster<sup>sm</sup>, has made the list of the Top 10 Coasters in the world. Industry critics and thrill seekers have hailed The Amazing Adventures of Spiderman<sup>sm</sup> (a combination dark ride, 3-D movie and motion simulator rolled into one) as "The best theme park ride ever conceived." A walk through Seuss Landing is like an acid-trip without the nausea, and Popeye and Bluto's Bilge Rat Barges offers a white-water-rapids raft ride that'll put any Six Flags park-version to shame. Top this all off by being hurled through the multiple loops, camelbacks, and corkscrews of the twin inverted racing coasters known as The Dueling Dragons and you'll call it one helluva-day!

Before you go home, don't forget to meet up with all your friends and "family" from across the nation and around the world. Similar to the traditional gathering at Cinderella Castle in the Magic Kingdom, organizers are encouraging everyone to meet at 3 pm outside the Enchanted Oak

Important GayDay at Islands of Adventure Schedule of Events

9 am Park Opens

11 am Youth Meet and Greet

Toon Lagoon near Bluto's Bilge Rat Barges. Followed by the Youth white-water raft-ride!

1 pm Lesbian Meet and Greet

At One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish Seuss Landing

1 pm Bears Meet and Greet

In the many Caves of Camp Jurassic. Go spelunking and discover other Bears. Jurassic Park Island.

3 pm General Meet & Greet & Group Photo

Everyone please gather outside the Enchanted

Oak Tavern, on The Lost Continent across from Dueling Dragons. (See details in article above).

3:15 pm Pose, Snap, Flash, Cocktails

Following the Big Gay Day Photo Opp, pass through the Enchanted Oak, grab a beer or cocktail if you like, and party on the waterfront verandah on the Lagoon side of the tavern. 3-5 pm is happy hour!

Note: Gay Day at Islands of Adventure is not sponsored or produced by Universal Orlando. This GayDays.com-endorsed event occurs during Regular Park operating hours. All standard Universal admissions media accepted. Remember to "Wear Red and Be Seen." Have fun sharing the park with others.

Tavern to mingle, drink and pose for a group photo. The planned assembly is in the open courtyard between Dueling Dragons and the Tavern, located on the Park's Lost Continent Island. Refreshment carts are nearby and the restaurant side of the Enchanted Oak sells quick-service beer along with barbecue chicken and ribs. The bar side has full-liquor service, with happy hour beginning at 3 pm. At 3:15 pm the plan calls for moving through the tavern and out the other end to claim the outdoor verandah (on the lagoon-side of the Enchanted Oak) as the location of the official/unofficial GayDay at Islands of Adventure Cocktail Soiree. The waterfront view from the verandah is gorgeous, the mood will be festive, and the company — flawless!

Come be a part of this historical event. GayDay in the Magic Kingdom will always have its very own special charm. But if you want to "kick it up a notch," join in the thrills at GayDay at Islands of Adventure for a shot of adrenaline you just can't get from It's a Small World.

Ripsaw Falls: This scream-inducing splash-down finale qualifies this souped up log flume as one of the world's best.

GayDays In Park Discounts Offered

Universal is producing a sheet of coupons which offer in-park discounts on food and merchandise. This sheet of coupons will accompany all Universal ticket media purchased from either the GayDays.com web site or at Savoir Fair at the Hotel Royal Plaza.

If you plan to purchase tickets at the front gates of the attraction, clip the exchange voucher from the bottom of this page and present it to the cashier at any Universal/Islands of Adventure ticket window. You'll receive the sheet of in-park discount coupons, manufactured especially for you, the GayDays visitor. These coupons will prove to be a real money-saver at the park's fast food outlets, full-service restaurants, and gift shops. The coupons are Universal's way of saying "thank you" for including Islands of Adventure in your GayDays itinerary.

*Parliament House

Longtime Parliament House bartender Gary Allen was one of the original Gay Day in the Magic Kingdom promoters, and did much to spread the word and rally the troops long before GayDays became a fashionable vacation option.

More importantly, the new owners of the Parliament House have been quick to claim the top GayDays title sponsorship for two years running. It is largely through this financial support that this souvenir program and other GayDays organizing efforts are funded.

Without the sponsorship and dedication of the Parliament House the growth and success of GayDays as we now know it, would not have been possible. So please be certain to include a Parliament House event in your GayDays itinerary.

Your GayDays title sponsor will host a plethora of GayDays events at the Parliament House Resort including their infamous foam parties. They're actually melding Memorial Day festivities right into GayDays week as one non-stop in-house (and in-courtyard) celebration. Check it out: Non-Stop Parliament House Party: Memorial Day through GayDays on page 23 & The Schedule-at-a-Glance on pages

Jeffrey Sanker: One Mighty Promoter

The list of superlatives used to describe event producer Jeffrey Sanker is endless: "The Prince of Party," "High Priest of Party," "Circuit Master," "The Man." Call him what you will, but his name has become synonymous with throwing successful and unforgettable bashes. His signature events consist of the top gay parties across the country, including White Party Palm Springs, Snowball (Miami White Party) and Frequency in West Hollywood, just to name a few.

Sanker made a name for himself as a top event promoter in New York City at clubs like Studio 54, Private Eyes and the infamous Palladium. His natural gift as a coordinator made him the premiere party planner for the elite. Stars such as Madonna, Boy George and Liberace have sought Sanker's expertise in event planning, and marveled at the quality of the end result.

One thing is for certain, if you are lucky enough to find yourself in attendance at one of Jeffrey Sanker's parties, you can be assured that you are attending an event of world-class caliber. Many also consider him to be a true pioneer and visionary in the party scene. He is credited with bringing cutting-edge DJs like Junior Vasquez, Rob Davis and Victor Calderone to the West Coast.

It should be of no great surprise that the man who is known as one of world's best party planners keeps residence in two cities with impressive, partying reputations of their own. Sanker splits his time between Los Angeles and Miami, near the ultimate party-playgrounds and within shouting distance of his exclusive clientele.

Baker Magic from Disney Pixie Dust

Just a quick glance at the road map of Mark Baker's personal "magic journey" should give you an idea of how he came to produce some of the most fabulous party experiences the circuit world has ever seen.

The producer of the award-winning Colosseum party at Hard Rock Live and the Magic Journeys after-hours parties started the trip in Toledo, Ohio, but like so many other young Americans in the 1970s, he was lured south by the prospect of a new life in Walt's Magic Kingdom. "Just the idea of Disney World was hard to pass up," Mark says.

After a brief layover as a river boat driver, Mark moved on to entertainment production for Walt Disney World, providing tech support for a variety of live shows as well as producing television specials. "It's where I learned about putting on a show," he remembers.

Mark's career trek (and a degree in TV and Radio) took him from production assistant to art director, a job he continues even now, working with clients like Disney World, Universal Studios, and Nickelodeon.

That the journey paid off is evident in the stunning aural and visual environments Mark's parties are famous for. His attention to the complete experience has won him high praise from across the circuit world. In fact, the Colosseum II party (GayDays 2000) was named the Best Circuit Party of 2000 by Orlando's own Circuit Dog and Best Event of 2000 by Dance 1.

"My entertainment experience still defines what I want for each event — from start to finish," said Baker. "I want people to experience a seamless flow. I want each element to contribute to and enhance the overall effect." And what an effect it is! Don't miss Baker's incredible sound, dance and light experiences!

Washington St. and Summerlin Ave.– Orlando's trendiest little area! Funky shops, fun places to eat and drink (lots of sidewalk cafe-style seating), and a revolution in renovation primarily attributed to forward thinking LesBiGay real estate developers and neighborhood planners. Lots of beautifully restored homes from the '20s, '30s and '40s. "The Spa of Thornton Park" (407-649-8889) is the jewel of the neighborhood and very reasonably priced; Impeccable Stress Reduction and ultimate pampering – Just a short drive from the Parliament House and only two miles from Co-Host Accommodation/Courtyards of Lake Lucerne. Orlando's Signature Lake Eola Park (gateway to the downtown area) is just around the corner, and 1 mile to the west is world-famous Southern Nights on Bumby Ave.

VI-MI District, The new home of GLBCC

The Vi-Mi (So named due to its proximity to the intersection of Virginia & Mills Avenues) is home to "The Center"(GLBCC) and a shopping district with many fine gay owned and operated shops offering LesBiGay-specific wares. Need rainbow apparel? LesBiGay books, cards or videos? You'll find it here along with great ethnic eateries, a LesBiGay cafe, and a gallery. There's even a store that specializes in large ladies' sizes for the cross-dresser, transgendered, or drag queen. Stroll a few blocks north to enjoy your favorite libation at the Cactus Club, where both ladies and gentlemen are always welcome to sip and chat at this favorite "family" watering hole. Just across the street, is the neighborhood's new Martini Bar– The Peacock Room.

GayDays – How Did We Come This Far?

Celebrating 11 years of wearing red, having fun

Mouske-Idea'r

Almost 12 years ago, former Orlando resident Doug Swallow suggested to the on-line users of Compu-Who (a multi-line BBS for gays) that they stage a casual meeting in Orlando's Magic Kingdom.

Once interest in the Magic Kingdom outing was established, the Compu-who friends were joined in their efforts by area bartenders, local activists, and various club and group leaders from The Orlando Gay & Lesbian Community Center. It was decided that attendees would wear red in order to identify one another, and to let their presence be known to the public at large.

Saturday – June 8, 1991

When the day finally arrived, an absolutely astonished 3,000 red-shirted individuals discovered one another in the Cinderella Castle forecourt at the established pre-parade meeting time, and Gay Day was born.

G&L Community Center Besieged With Calls

By 1994, The Center was receiving telephone inquiries some three months prior to the event. In 1994 attendance had swelled to 12,000. In 1995, a whopping 32,000 Gay Day attendees constituted the majority of Magic Kingdom visitors that first Saturday in June.

In response, Orlando's growing number of LesBiGay Bars and Clubs began planning special entertainments specifically geared to the Gay Day crowds (A tradition which continues today – Consult the LesBiGay Bar Guide on page 32)

Orlando Becomes A Circuit-City

Large numbers of die-hard party animals were attracted to the area in 1997 by premiere party producer, Jeffrey Sanker, who rented the Disney / MGM Studios for One Mighty Party, now in its fifth year.

That same year, Orlando's local G & L newspaper publisher, Tom Dyer along with event producer, Keith Peterson, presented Beach Ball at Disney's Typhoon Lagoon water park.

By 1998 Mark Baker Presents came on the scene, and what began as a simple after-hours party at Friday's Front Row has grown into the Mark Baker Magical Weekend which includes the award winning Colosseum Party at Hard Rock Live.

Tampa Boyz Attract Crowd

Perhaps one of the most stunning success stories is that of Reunion 4. What began as a small group of Circuit Party-hungry boyz from Tampa who booked into the same hotel together, has grown into a gathering which has overflowed a buy-out of a 900 room resort. (Congratulations Brian!)

Not All Good News

All this activity originating from so many sources was making attending Gay Day events and acquiring the necessary tickets, both problematic and time consuming. Attendees complained the over-all event lacked cohesion and focus.

Many pleaded, "Please give us a one-stop ticket distribution option without outrageous per-ticket convenience fees."

GayDays.com Fills Void

GayDayS.com added an "S" to the Gay Day weekend and GayDays was born. The Orlando-based company has worked tirelessly to liaise with local government, hotel managers, circuit party & event producers, and area attractions, to promote a more Gay-Days Friendly environment, and to make attending GayDays an easier and more enjoyable experience. As a result of these efforts the GayDayS.com web site does indeed offer advance ticketing with no up-charges. Good relations are enjoyed with all the major party producers, the result of which is a huge reduction in the number of persons waiting in long lines to claim will-call tickets at each individual venue.

In cooperation with GLBCC, GayDayS.com establishes host and co-host hotels, operates the Official Hospitality Center, manufactures T-shirts, publishes this complimentary Souvenir Event Program, produces a vendor fair, operates ticket distribution centers, and maintains the premier online resource for GayDays related information and services: www.GayDayS.com.

Still Growing

As the event has grown, legions of tour operators, group leaders, Disney buffs, the media, and satisfied GayDays attendees have joined Mr. Swallow, GLBCC, Reunion, Circuit Dog, and GayDayS.com in spreading the positive word about this one-of-a-kind vacation experience.

In 2000, an estimated 125,000 GayDays attendees infused approximately $90 million dollars into the local economy.

New For 2001

- Gay Day at Islands of Adventure
- Splash Bash
- Girls in Wonderland (a women's event)
- Out of this Universe T-Dance

No one person, company, or organization can claim credit for the phenomenon that is now GayDays.

While it all started as a grass roots effort by community pioneers and the Compu-Who devotees, its continued growth is due to the work of many.

The real success of GayDays is attributable to you, the GayDays attendee. If you are here for the event, you may count yourself among those individuals who give GayDays its pulse and its heart.

Donning a red tee shirt and proudly stepping into the Florida sunshine is not only self-affirming, it dispels the myth that our numbers are few, or that our lives are lived in the shadows of shame.

Be out. Have Fun.

You are the center of the Universe we call 2001: A GayDays Odyssey!

Non-Stop Parliament House Party: Memorial Day Weekend thru GayDays

This year the P-House is pushing the proverbial party envelope as far as it possibly can as they kick off their festivities an entire week early. Thanks to the Memorial Day holiday weekend falling the week before GayDays, the "professional partiers" can hit the P-House for a daunting "10 Days of Insanity" that will put any partier to the test. The insanity begins on May 25th, starting with Carn-A-Val Weekend, an event that features "unusual acts," outrageous T-Dances, and special Footlight Player shows. By the time GayDays arrives, the P-House will already be warmed up and in full stride. Don't miss the smash hit musical comedy -"Asian Sings The Blues" presented only on Wednesday and Thursday, May 30 & 31 at 7 PM. It's a riot! (see ad page 19). Friday and Saturday, June 1st and 2nd, settle in with thousands of GayDays revelers for inside and outside DJs and a "SUDS" Foam Party. There will be plenty of special Footlight Player Shows, dancers, Club Kidz Hot Spot performances and much more. Rest assured that the P-House's signature, "Official GayDay T-Dance" will end up being the most talked about throw-down of the year. After all, they've got a reputation to live up to. Check out the Parliament House entertainment ad on page 12 of this program. Date-by-

Date Parliament House happenings are listed in Schedule-at-Glance on pg. 20 and 21, and expanded details of all they are offering is in the Events Guide beginning on page 22.

Cassadaga: Readings, Spiritual Enlightenment

Nestled in scenic woodlands just 30 minutes north of downtown Orlando is Cassadaga: a quaint enclave (a whole town actually) entirely populated by Certified Mediums who offer Psychic Readings from a basis of true innate abilities and deep seated spirituality.

Camp Bookstore, Welcome Center and Fellowship Hall

Designated an Historic District on the National Register of Historic Places, Cassadaga Spiritualist Camp is the oldest active religious community in the southeastern United States. It was established in 1894, rising from founder George Colby's dream of a place in the South where Spiritualists could live and work together and guide those who come seeking knowledge and enlightenment.

The residents of Cassadaga believe that life continues after death and that mediums can communicate with those who have passed on.

The mediums of Cassadaga invite you to visit and explore, not only their town, but your own spirituality as well. You may attend a church or healing service, or simply browse in the bookstores and gift shops, and of course, readings are available to anyone open to the prospect of receiving communication from those who have passed.

Appointments with mediums or healers are encouraged but not absolutely necessary. You may call the camp Bookstore & Information Center at (386) 228-2880 or visit the web site www.cassadaga.org.

The Camp is easily accessible off I-4 (traveling Eastbound from the attractions area) at exit 54, and is approximately 35 miles from Orlando.

Additionally, mini-readings are available to GayDays attendees at the Cassadaga booth at Savoir Fair in The Hotel Royal Plaza, Thursday, May 31 through Saturday June, 2, 2001.

Recommended Eateries

Following are restaurants popular among locals, and which also participate in GayDays events and activities.

Bergamo's Italian Restaurant

A magical combination of excellent cuisine and musical entertainment. Talented singing waiters serve the area's finest meals while performing the best of Broadway, Grand Opera and Neapolitan Folk Songs. 407-352-3805.

Charlie's Lobster House

The area's premier seafood restaurant features fresh seafood from Florida's coast and the shores of the North Atlantic, Pacific and beyond! Also: Certified Angus steak dinner and award-winning wine list. 407-352-6929.

DiVino's

A taste of Central Italy: Homemade pasta, fresh seafood, poultry and Prime Certified Angus steaks. Many meals are cooked on the wood-burning grills. 407-345-0883.

Mad-Lyns

Gay-owned. Home cooking with flair, located at 932 N. Mills Avenue, in the Vi-Mi district. (see map on this page) 9-inch pressed Cuban-style sandwiches, Veggie wraps, salads, and entrees. Beer and wine selections. Free draft with Splash Bash ticket on Friday (details: ad on inside front cover) Now serving breakfast. 407-898-1616.

Parliament House

Did you know the P-house features a full-service restaurant? Menu choices range from sandwiches to prime rib! Great food at reasonable prices. Open 24 hours on the weekend. 407-425-7571.

11th Annual Gay Day in The Magic Kingdom

It's not about the rides or attractions. It's not about the parades or fireworks. It's about you — and your decision to walk proudly through the front gates as an openly gay, lesbian, or gay supportive individual.

It's about seizing the opportunity to have your day in the sun, without being relegated to the minority of the crowd. Today you are not in the minority. Today you constitute the crowd.

What is our stated purpose? To have fun. What is our hidden agenda? There is none.

When you wear red, others will see you, and draw their own conclusions. By the end of the day, most will come to realize, that there are no horns or third eyes among us.

Don't be shy about holding hands if you have a mind to. Don't feel constrained to hide your affection for one another, but by the same token, remember that grand displays of physical interaction are never considered to be in good taste under any circumstances.

Mickey's floral ears grew suspiciously red just in time for GayDays 2000. Hmm.

There are bound to be a few antagonists who will be waiting to point a finger and cry "foul." So, please, treat the Magic Kingdom park and all Disney cast members with the respect they deserve, and treat all others in the park with kindness, most especially those who are not kindly toward you. Take the higher ground!

Remember it's not us versus them. It is quite simply "we the people." Collectively, we are all part of the human family. Today, we simply push the edge a bit, to insinuate ourselves further into the fold. We're just here to have fun. It's our Kingdom, too!

Important Day of Magic Times

- 9 am Park Opens
- 11 am LesBiGay Youth Meet & Greet
Open area between Carousel & Castle in Fantasyland
- 1 pm Bears Meet & Greet
Area in Front of Country Bear Jamboree, Frontierland
- Calling All Women:
- 12:45 pm Lesbian Meet & Greet
Gather in the park-like setting around the Town Square Flag Pole, directly in front of the Railroad Station, Main Street USA
- 1 pm Lesbian Express
All aboard! Lesbians share a grand circle tour of the Magic Kingdom, aboard the Walt Disney World Railroad. C-mon girls, let's see if we can fill a whole train or two. Take the full round-trip. Disembark at Main Street Station for the Women's Stroll.
- 1:40 pm Women's Stroll
Lesbians and their supportive family members and friends, stroll proudly down the center of Main Street USA to join the general Meet & Greet at Cinderella Castle Forecourt.
- 1:45 pm Pre-Parade Meet & Greet
Cinderella Castle Forecourt. Everyone join "family" from around the world, for this traditional, impromptu street Party.
- 3 pm Magical Moments Parade
Begins in Frontierland, ends at Main Street USA entrance.
- 4 pm Savoir Fair Break
Get out of the heat & out of the crowds. Visit Savoir Fair. (See page 1.)
If you intend to return to the Magic Kingdom later today, be sure to get a hand stamp prior to exiting the park. Both a hand stamp and a ticket are required for re-entry.
- 9 pm Spectro Magic
- 10 pm Fantasy in the Sky
- 11 pm Spectro Magic
- 12 am Park Closes
